ADMINISTRATIVE HISTORY/BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH	Maud (?- 1925) and Al (? ?) Frampton had six children. Frances (1888-1965), Dorothy (? – 1934), Keith (?) Mary (? – 1962). No mention is made of the other two children. Frances Frampton was born in England and emigrated to Canada in 1907 when she was 19 to settle with parents and siblings in Victoria, B.C. She graduated from Nurse's training in 1915. She worked for the Columbia Coast Mission Hospital in Van Anda between 1915-1916 and then St Luke's Hospital in Powell River from 1916-1925. After nursing in Kamloops BC she returned to England and nursed until 1951. Rosalie Frampton has compiled her grandmother's letters and donated the extracts that she felt pertained to her Aunt Frances's tenure of nursing while in the Powell River area.
CUSTODIAL HISTORY	Keith Frampton, Rosalie's father, gave the letters and photographs to her.
