ADMINISTRATIVE HISTORY/BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH	The Friends of the Olive Devaud was formed as a result of Vancouver Coastal Health Authority's announcement that the Olive Devaud Home, a home for senior citizens, was to be closed due to the building's inadequacies. The expectation was that families would look after their loved ones in the interim until new buildings were constructed. The new buildings had not yet been tendered nor had the land been sold to any interested parties. The Friends of the Olive Devaud was formed to fight this proposal as it was felt that this was not feasible. The organization became dormant after the government backed down from their proposal.
