ADMINISTRATIVE HISTORY/BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH	The Powell River Film Commission began in the 1990s as a joint project of the Powell River Economic Development Society and Powell River Community Futures, with the mandate to attract filmmakers to the community, in order to not only tell the wider world about the uniqueness of the area but to also act as an economic driver. Under the auspices of the Powell River Economic Development Society and Powell River Community Futures, a booklet was produced with images of the Powell River region. In 2002 organization moved under the umbrella of the Powell River Regional Economic Development Society. A Mission Statement, Constitution and By-laws were developed. The Commission received approximately $160,000 in funding with most the money given by NorskeCanada. The first Powell River Film Festival was hosted by the Film Commission in 2002. There were funding problems and the Powell River Film Commission became dormant in 2003. The Powell River Film Society took over the annual Film Festival in 2003.
